

INTERNATIONAL COLLEGE FOR ECCLESIASTICAL LICENSING AND ORDINATION
(IC-ELO) UNITED KINGDOM

(GLOBAL INSTITUTE OF MINISTERIAL CERTIFICATIONS AND ORDINATIONS)

You are Welcome to IC-ELO

The International College for Ecclesiastical Licensing and Ordination (IC-ELO) is a specialized institution committed to equipping, licensing, and ordaining Christian ministers, leaders, and ecclesiastical professionals worldwide. Registered both in London, United Kingdom and Oyo State Nigeria As a Christ-centered college, IC-ELO bridges spiritual formation and professional ministerial training, fostering a new generation of clergy and church leaders who are grounded in biblical truth, ecclesiastical traditions, and practical ministry skills.

International College for Ecclesiastical Licensing and Ordination (IC-ELO) is a premier institution dedicated to training, equipping, and certifying individuals called to Christian ministry. We provide a structured pathway for ministers, pastors, chaplains, and church leaders to receive formal licensing and ordination, ensuring they meet biblical, theological, and professional standards for effective service.

At IC-ELO, we believe that a well-equipped minister is a more effective servant of God, capable of transforming lives and impacting communities.

Our Vision

To be a globally recognized institution for ecclesiastical licensing and ordination, raising spiritually mature and competent leaders to fulfill God's calling in the Church and society.

Our Mission

1. Equip Ministers: To provide theological education, practical ministry training, and leadership development tailored to ministers, pastors, and church workers.

2. Authorize Clergy: To certify, license, and ordain individuals for effective ministry, ensuring sound doctrinal understanding and ecclesiastical competence.

3. Support Lifelong Learning: To offer continuous ministerial formation through seminars, certifications, and advanced study programs.

4. Global Impact: To foster a network of clergy who will impact their communities and the world with integrity, knowledge, and servant leadership.

Core Objectives

- Provide accredited programs for clergy training and ecclesiastical leadership.
- Train ministers for effective preaching, pastoral care, church administration, and missionary work.
- License and ordain candidates through biblically sound processes and rigorous standards.
- Develop a global community of licensed ministers, ecclesiastical leaders, and ordained clergy.

Core Programmes

1. Licensing Programmes: Certification for lay ministers, deacons, and licensed preachers.

2. Ordination Pathway: Ecclesiastical ordination programmes for pastors, elders, and church leaders.

3. Continuing Education: Workshops, conferences, and seminars for licensed clergy to refine their skills and knowledge.

4. Specialized Training: Short courses in pastoral care, counseling, church planting, missions, and ecclesiastical governance.

Target Audience

Aspiring clergy seeking licensing and ordination.

Pastors, elders, and church workers desiring advanced training.

Churches and ministries aiming to formally equip and certify leaders.

Missionaries and evangelists needing ecclesiastical authorization.

Unique Features

Biblical and Practical Curriculum: Grounded in Scripture while addressing contemporary ministry challenges.

Flexible Learning Modes: Onsite, hybrid, and distance learning options to cater to global learners.

Ecclesiastical Recognition: Degrees, certificates, and ordinations recognized by church networks and Christian organizations.

Mentorship and Field Practicum: Experienced clergy provide mentorship, and practical ministry opportunities are integrated into learning.

Accreditation and Affiliation

The IC-ELO operates as a private Christian institution, maintaining recognition through partnerships with Christian accrediting bodies, international theological networks, and ecclesiastical organizations.

Motto

“Equipping Called Leaders, Commissioning Kingdom Workers.”

Our Core Values

✓Biblical Integrity – Upholding the Word of God as the foundation for ministry.

- ✓Spiritual Excellence – Training ministers to walk in holiness and power.
- ✓Leadership Development – Equipping leaders for transformational impact.
- ✓Ministerial Ethics – Promoting moral and ethical excellence in ministry.
- ✓Global Impact – Raising ministers who can serve across nations and cultures.

Our Programs & Services

1. Ecclesiastical Licensing

Our ministerial licensing program is designed for individuals preparing for pastoral, evangelistic, or chaplaincy ministry. This certification serves as an official endorsement of one's calling and ministerial competence.

2. Ordination & Apostolic Commissioning

For seasoned ministers called to higher ecclesiastical responsibilities, IC-ELO offers a structured ordination program. This includes theological training, ministerial ethics, and spiritual mentorship, leading to full ordination and apostolic commissioning.

3. Advanced Ministerial Training

We provide specialized courses and workshops in pastoral leadership, Christian counseling, church administration, chaplaincy, and missionary work to enhance the competence of Christian leaders.

Generally, we

4. Accreditation & Ministerial Recognition

IC-ELO offers ministerial endorsement for churches, ministries, and individuals seeking formal recognition and certification for their spiritual and leadership roles.

5. Fellowship & Networking

Our institution provides global ministerial connections through strategic partnerships, conferences, and collaborative forums where ordained ministers can engage in spiritual and professional development.

Core Areas of Training:

Preaching and Evangelism: Techniques for delivering impactful sermons and leading effective evangelistic efforts.

Church Management and Administration: Skills in organizing and overseeing church operations, budgets, and human resources.

Spiritual Formation: Practices that nurture one's spiritual life, preparing them to lead with integrity.

Counseling and Pastoral Care: Techniques for providing spiritual guidance, counseling, and emotional support to congregants.

Certification

Our certification programs are tailored for those who want to validate their knowledge and expertise in specific areas of ecclesiastical service. Certification at IC-ELO acts as a mark of distinction, recognizing both the academic achievements and practical competencies of the candidates.

Certification Tracks:

Ministry of Preaching: Certification for those who are called to preach and teach.

Theological Education: For those who wish to be recognized as scholars and teachers of the Word.

Pastoral Care: For those specializing in counseling, family therapy, and spiritual guidance.

Chaplaincy: Special certification for those interested in chaplaincy work in hospitals, military, prisons, and corporate settings.

How Certifications Help:

Official recognition of one's competence and skills in a given ministry area.

Increased credibility and authority in ecclesiastical contexts.

Empowerment to serve in various official church roles.

Ordination

Ordination is a sacred and significant event in the life of a minister. At IC-ELO, we provide a comprehensive ordination process that ensures each candidate is theologically prepared, spiritually mature, and practically equipped for service in the church.

Ordination Process:

Application and Assessment: Candidates undergo an in-depth theological evaluation, interviews, and personal assessments.

Training: Successful candidates complete a curriculum focused on theology, ministry practices, and leadership.

Spiritual Readiness: We examine candidates' calling, spiritual maturity, and commitment to a life of service.

Ceremony: A formal ordination ceremony takes place, recognizing the candidate's divine calling and commissioning them for ministry.

Ministries Open to Ordained Ministers:

Pastoral leadership, teaching roles, counseling, chaplaincy, and missionary work.

Licensing

Licensing is the legal and ecclesiastical authorization given to an individual to perform various sacred rites and duties within the church. This service ensures that candidates meet both spiritual and professional qualifications to serve effectively.

Licensing Areas:

Preaching and Teaching: Authorizing licensed individuals to preach, teach, and lead Bible studies.

Weddings and Baptisms: Empowering ministers to conduct sacramental services like marriages and baptisms.

Church Administration: Enabling individuals to take on leadership roles in church operations, financial management, and pastoral care.

License Benefits:

Formal authorization to serve in various ecclesiastical roles and conduct sacred rites.

Legal recognition of the minister's ability to serve the church community.

Consecration of Bishops

Bishops hold a special place in the hierarchy of the church, and their consecration is a process that acknowledges their higher spiritual authority and leadership role within the church. ICELON's consecration program ensures that bishops are spiritually prepared, well-trained, and equipped for the responsibilities that come with the office.

Consecration Process:

Spiritual Assessment: Candidates are evaluated based on their spiritual maturity and leadership abilities.

Theological and Practical Training: A thorough program focused on advanced theology, church governance, and leadership.

Public Ceremony: The consecration ceremony is an official recognition of the bishop's calling to lead.

Responsibilities of Consecrated Bishops:

Oversee dioceses, mentor clergy, lead large congregational networks, and handle ecclesiastical matters.

Provide spiritual leadership, doctrinal guidance, and theological education within their jurisdiction.

Elevation of Bishops to Archbishops

Elevation to the rank of Archbishop is a significant milestone, and ICELON offers a formal process for this promotion. The elevation is based on an individual's leadership track record, theological proficiency, and service to the church.

Elevation Criteria:

Extensive ministry experience.

Proven leadership in ecclesiastical administration.

Significant contribution to church growth and doctrinal integrity.

Archbishop Responsibilities:

Oversight of multiple dioceses and regional churches.

Leadership in church councils, conferences, and decision-making bodies.

Engagement in theological discussions, advocacy, and social justice initiatives.

Fellowship

Fellowship is a vital part of IC-ELO's community, providing spiritual and professional growth opportunities. Our fellowship programs foster relationships between ecclesiastical leaders, students, and church communities.

Fellowship Activities:

Conferences and Workshops: For sharing theological insights, ministry practices, and leadership strategies.

Spiritual Retreats: Focused on personal spiritual renewal, reflection, and growth.

Collaborative Ministry Projects: Engage in collective service initiatives for social transformation.

Outcomes of Fellowship:

Strengthened network of ecclesiastical leaders.

Deepened sense of purpose and mission in ministry.

Enhanced cooperation and mutual support among clergy.

And More...

In addition to the aforementioned services, ICELON offers a holistic approach to developing ecclesiastical leaders, including:

Mentorship Programs: Personal and academic mentorship to guide individuals through their spiritual and academic journeys.

Advanced Ecclesiastical Studies: Opportunities for advanced research and academic courses in ecclesiastical and theological fields.

Specialized Workshops: Focused workshops on topics such as pastoral care, social justice, interfaith dialogue, and global missions.

At IC-ELO, we provide a comprehensive range of services that help individuals fulfill their divine calling and become effective leaders in the church and society. Our approach is holistic, ensuring that each individual is not only academically equipped but also spiritually mature and practically prepared for their ministerial responsibilities.
